

MY KARAT II.

POL 17667

description.

With a perfect balance between the exterior and interior, designed by Carlo Galeazzi, My Karat II has raised the bar in her category. Whether soaking up the sun on the sundeck, relaxing on the comfortable sunbeds, dining alfresco at the inviting table for eight, or simply enjoying the spectacular views of the open sea, each area onboard offers an exceptional atmosphere. The spacious flybridge provides unparalleled comfort, accommodating guests at any time of the day, bringing shade with an optional sliding hardtop to wind down after an active day.

With her well laid out cabin configuration, My Karat II is a perfect match for friends or families looking for a yacht charter. From the moment you wake up, listening to the waves gently lapping against the yacht, to the instant you return to your luxurious cabin, My Karat II provides the ultimate in comfort and luxury for an unforgettable yacht charter experience.
